WELCOME BACK TO THE SERIES

YES I MEADE IT INTO A SERIES LMAOOOOOOOOO

AHA ILL POST OFFICIALLY TOMORROW

Poor Firepaw

[image]

"mom i can't go to school tomorrow"

"why?"

"everyone is gonna laugh at me when the teacher calls attendance and hears my name"

"you were named after a brave warrior, firepaw."

since you guys can't wait for this book to publish xD

Punclan

Ashfur: You never loved me! I'll kill your kits!
Squirrelflight: ... fine. They aren't mine anyways.
The three: .....
Jayfeather: I did not see that coming!
Lionblaze: You're not our mother? I'm blazing in anger!!
Hollyleaf: I knew something rather rocky was going on!!

*guys.. we might get our first dog !!! *SCREECh

Punclan//Again

firestar: aww. ... sandstorm.... our children are so cute.... i mean... are you kitting me sandstorm: what.
firestar: sorry. that was *litter*ally the worst joke i've ever made sandstorm: i had to post another pun cause looks like i posted a repeat for the first time ;-;

also guys, come up with names for boy and girl dog names... like from movies

Firestar Is Stressed Out

[image]

basically every character: omg firestar what are we gonna do why are you doing that do you remember that you were a kittypet once why are you so nice to other kittypets firestar im hungry firestar im sad what's going on why are you doing that firestar whatfirestar:

Dexter's Laboratory

[image] [image] [image]

[image]

imagine you're firepaw. you've just finished hunting and you want to sunbathe with a few fellow warriors. you're a little hungry so you turn to graypaw to ask if he wants to get something from the fresh kill pile. you turn and he's sitting like this.

what would you do?

idk, die

Mother Willow

[image]

Brackenfur: who's at the den?
Sorreltail: it's uh...my mother
Brackenfur: your mother is dead
Sorreltail: yea I know it's getting really weird out here

Mudtrump

Fire You

[image]

"Listen, you're my children and I love you but you're both terrible at what you do here and I feel like I should tell you, I'd fire both of you if I could."
Tigerstar to Brambleclaw and Hawkfrost would you guys be mates with Hawkfrost if you could?

[image]

Rosetail: Thornclaw, may I have a word?

Thornclaw: Of course! Anything for my favourite.

Rosetail: It seems you and our fearless leader are inseparable these days...joined at the hip almost.

Thornclaw: That's but of an overstatement don't you think?!

Rosetail: Well then, now that you write an intimate relationship you should learn about where babies really come from.

Thornclaw: Pardon?

Rosetail: I know the chantry says you dream about your babies and the good word spirits take them out of the fade and leave them in your arms.

But that's not true actually! What happens is when a girl and a boy really love each other and-Thornclaw: I know where babies come from!

Rosetail: Do you? Do you really?

Thornclaw: Yeah! I certainly hope so!

Rosetail: Oh all right then. Oh look! Your all red modeled. How cute!

Thornclaw: You did that on purpose!

Rosestail: Now now Thornclaw, why would I do such a thing?

Thornclaw: Because you're wicked. That frail old lady act. I'm not fooled from them, i'm on to you now.

did part 2!!

Mr. Garbage

Warrior Cat Prefume Lines

thunderclan - smells like dirt and herbs. one spritz of the magical thunderclan line - in thunderclan we trust! - and u'll smell like u just walked thru a magical forest trail with your furry friend and ate some dirt too :)) shadowclan - smells like pine needles and mud. (NOTE: mud is different from dirt so get da hell out of here!!) for some reason most cats hate this smell and will hiss at you. one spray of our shadowclan line and you'll be smelling like a dirty christmas tree!

riverclan - smells like salmon, beach sand, and other miscellaneous fish (for the last time it's not tuna we dont sell people tuna scented perfume!!) cats LOVE this smell and for some reason aspiring cat owners do too. one puff of our riverclan scent line and you can't even sun yourself on a rock without a cat owner scooping you up and taking you home!!

windclan - smells like rabbit and dirt. although not the most popular line, this perfume line will make you feel like you can run a mile through a moor AND shove yourself into a tunnel for no reason!! one spray of this line and you'll be torn between chasing rabbits and cleaning dirt from your nails!

skyclan - DISCONTINUED.

bloodclan - no longer fda approved. apparently literal blood in perfume only stains the wearer.

Your Life As A Warrior

[image]

The death part might be a bit cruel, but the books were not acting differently towards the cats!)

Childhood
(Look up your birthday month)

1. You were born with a blind eye. However, it never bothered you much.
2. You are really small. Some other nursery kittens might have made fun of you.
3. You broke your leg because you fell down the cliff! It healed well, but your leg still looks a little out of place.
4. Your childhood was pretty decent. Nothing bothered you much and you had a lot of friends.
5. Your siblings were mean to you! But you'll forgive them. Right?
6. An enemy patrol broke into your camp and killed your mother/ father! You only have one parent now, maybe a few siblings. You might grieve for your loss.
7. Your parents left you near the entrance of a clan camp! Luckily, the clan adopted you, but you still have no clue who your parents are.
8. You were a really big kitten. You were the boss in the nursery when playing. Your words were the rules! Providing your parents didn't see you...
9. You were stolen by an enemy clan! You have a few injuries, because the cat that dragged you away was rough. Will you try to go back to your former clan, though?
10. You were born with a disability (blindness, deafness, etc.)! Fighting your way through the nursery was tough. Will you be strong enough to be a warrior, or will you decide to go the medicine cat way?
11. One of your siblings has gone missing! You told that story all around the nursery and you once tried to organise a search patrol! Do you think you found your missing sibling?

12. Lucky, your mother is the leader's mate! All the other kits listened to your words, but you were hopefully not too bossy.

Adulthood
(Look up the last letter of your last name)

A. You are a good warrior. You are quite popular cat in the clan, but some refuse to trust you. I wonder why?
B. You are a really attractive cat! Many in the clan try to make you theirs! Will you accept one of the offers?
C. You choose the way of a medicine cat! Learning how all the herbs look and how to use them is tough, but it is worth the meetings with StarClan.
D. You are a loyal warrior. You apprenticed many cats. You love fighting, and you're always the first one to chase away an enemy.
E. Lucky you! You've been made deputy! Most cats seem to like you, the ones who don't are just jealous.
F. You are not the best of all fighters. You have many scars. But you have the most friends in the clan, almost everyone likes you.
G. You little liar, you! Always getting into trouble with clan mates, and then lying to your leader? Bad, you are!
H. You are a proud parent of a litter of many kits! You raise them well, and it serves the clan well, too. You think it can serve you well too, but in which way?
I. You were made leader! You are leading a really powerful and skilled clan. But you don't have many supporters and some cats even despise you!
J. You are really selfish. You always eat the prey you caught instead of bringing it to the clan. You should really consider sharing!
K. You meet a really attractive cat! But the problem is, that cat is in another clan! Your two clans are really big enemies at the moment, so meeting them will be hard!
L. You are a really good fighter! When it's about protecting your clan, you're always there! But you really despise the other clans.
M. You are the deputy of your clan, but you really want to become leader! You know there is only two ways to do that: wait for the leader to die or retire or kill the leader! You are unsure.
N. You are the clan clown! You always make the cats purr. The leader is not happy with that, though. But making cats happy is your passion!

O. You decided to be a medicine cat. You seem to be naturally talented in herbs, but you have troubles communicating with StarClan. You do believe in them, right?
P. You're the star of the clan! Everyone loves you. You help a lot, always bring back a good amount of prey and you're a good teacher! But you're always nervous before fighting and it irritates you a lot.
Q. You were made leader of the clan really quickly! You try to be nice to the other clans but sometimes they just won't listen. Will you have to be aggressive?
R. You love helping in the nursery. You find kittens so adorable, yet you don't want some of your own. Others think your weird because of that.
S. You were exiled! You still have some contact with your friends. You try to talk with them about your problem but they seem like they don't understand you. Will you try to get back into your clan?
T. A monster hits you as you are trying to cross the street. Your tail looks crooked now, but you don't really care. You're annoyed by all the cats who ask you about it.
U. You're a great warrior with a really unique fighting style! But the bad thing about you is that you spy on other clans! Nobody has noticed you. Not yet.
V. You help a lot. It's like you have a sensor for cats who need help. It doesn't matter who, leaders, deputies, queens, medicine cats, cats from other clans or even different species such as badgers!
W. You are not the nicest cat. You constantly hiss at the others when they're not doing their job well. You seem to hate with a passion, too.
X. Genius! You were always the smartest kit in the nursery, and you're the smartest warrior now! Your ideas are always outstanding, only if you could make others listen to you.
Y. You're really fast. You're always catching prey on hunting patrols, even in the coldest of leaf-bare. But your fighting skills seem a little off compared to others.
Z. You are an astounding warrior! You organise things very well and make sure everything is in order. You might have the skill of a leader, but the actual leader doesn't like you a lot.

Death
(Your birthday month minus 5. Example: 3 (March) - 5 = 10

(October))

1. You get killed by greencough! You had to suffer a little, but in the end you died during your sleep.
2. A monster hits you! You are bleeding a lot, you can already see StarClan cats around you.
3. You get killed by another cat! You fought well, but it was not enough.
4. Another clan attacks your camp! You died while trying to defend one of your friends.
5. You ran off into another forest. Nobody ever saw you afterwards. Could you still be alive?
6. You retire from your duties as warrior and die a peaceful death in the elder's den.
7. Someone put deathberries in your mouse! You die, not knowing who put them there.
8. You fall down a cliff! You tried to save yourself, but the rocks slipped away under your paws and you fell into the dark depths...
9. You fell into the water! It is cold like ice and you're unable to move. How horrible!
10. As the fire spread through the forest, you were still asleep. As you wake up, all you can see around you are bright flames and no other cats! Traitors!
11. You tried to kill your leader! But they we're stronger and took you down.
12. You died fighting against a strong loner! You have no clue who they are, but you hope that your clan is alright.

haha so mine was, 6A1
my parents died and only few siblings, good/popular warrior, and i die of green cough ;-; thunderclan: buff, average height, big ole' paws and medium-length fur that's hard to claw through. kitty manes.

Body Types

shadowclan: short angry fluffs, literally just fluffy cats with smushed snouts. they're on average, smaller than all of the other clans windclan: tall and thin kitters. really long legs, tiny paws, and BIG bat-like ears riverclan: long-furred, glossy-looking. taller than thunderclan, shorter than windclan. muscular legs and fat kitty bellies. WEBBED TOES.

bonus skyclan: pretty much the same as thunderclan but a lil' bit smaller, their fur is short and they have strong legs and longer claws. lots o' ear tufts!

how do you think their bodies are?

...Wyd

[image]

tigerstar: half clan cats are the product of disloyalty and i genuinely dont understand how anyone could trust them, they have divided loyalties
